

22 December 2020

jhughes@samsonlaw.ky

STATEMENT FROM ATTORNEY JONATHON HUGHES
FOLLOWING THE DECISION OF THE CAYMAN ISLANDS COURT OF APPEAL
IN THE CASE OF SKYLAR MACK & VANJAE RAMJEET v. HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN

"We are grateful to the Cayman Islands Court of Appeal for agreeing to hear this case with such urgency, and the consideration with which they heard the arguments this morning.

We note that the Court allowed our appeal and agreed with our submission that the 4-month sentence imposed by the Grand Court was not appropriate in the circumstances of this case.

Whilst it was our hope that Skylar would be able to return home to resume her studies in January, we accept the decision of the Court and look forward to receiving its written reasons in due course.

Ms. Mack and Mr. Ramgeet continue to express remorse for their actions and ask for the forgiveness of the people of the Cayman Islands."

ENDS

Samson Law Associates